

STATE VERMONT		COUNTY Windsor		TOWN OR VICINITY Woodstock (30 Elm Street)		8p 4d
INDEX NUMBER VT, 14-WOOD, 1		MONUMENT Job Lyman House
REPRESENTED IN NEGATIVE FILE		H.A.B.S. SURVEY NO. VT-26		History - This large house, built 1809-1810, is representative of a prosperous era in a prosperous town. It has unusually elaborate ornamentation.
PUBLISHED PHOTOGRAPHS		Description - Brick end walls, clapboarded frame front and rear walls, two stories with basement, portico with Ionic pilasters, hipped roof with balustrade, center hall plan.
PUBLISHED DRAWINGS		  (over)
GPO 6-8369		10-444 HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY

References - Henry Swan Dana, A History of Woodstock, Vermont, Houghton, Mifflin and Co., Boston and New York, 1889, p. 178. Dorothy and Richard Pratt, A Guide to Early American Homes, North, McGraw-Hill Book Co., Inc., New York, p. 82. Old Buildings Project of the Robert Hull Fleming Museum at the University of Vermont, Burlington, 1937-1938. Mrs. J. Peter Gratiot, Otis Hill Farm, Woodstock, Vt. Dr. and Mrs. Lynn C. Stoker, 30 Elm Street, Woodstock, Vt.

Author of Card - Dorothy E. Green, Clerk, National Park Service, 143 South Third Street, Philadelphia 6, Pa. - December 15, 1959